Max Eugene Morgan of Corvallis died at Heart of the Valley Center on November 11, 1995. He was 81.

Morgan was born to Henry Charles and Lucy (Clark) Morgan in Bellingham, Washington. He was raised in Bellingham and graduated from Bellingham High School. He married Betty J. Noble on September 12, 1937.

In 1939, Morgan received his bachelor of science degree from Washington State University in dairy manufacturing. While attending Washington State University, he belonged to Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity.

He enlisted in the Army in 1942, spending time in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, and Governors Island, New York, receiving the American Campaign Medal, World War II Victory Medal, and a Good Conduct Ribbon. Upon discharge from the Army in 1946, he joined the Army Reserves, retiring in 1975.

From 1948 to 1970, he was Professor of Dairy Industry at the University of Connecticut. He became Professor Emeritus at Oregon State University in Food Science until his retirement in 1977.

He received the Borden Award for dairy research in 1967. Morgan was an active ADSA member and served on the selection committee for the Pfizer Award and Borden Award. He served from 1968 to 1970 on the Flavor Nomenclature and Reference Standards Committee of the Dairy Foods Division.

Survivors include his son, Tom Morgan, of Corvallis; three grandchildren; and two nephews. He was preceded in death by his wife, Betty, and a son, Fred, in 1994.

Donations in his memory may be made to Good Samaritan Hospital in care of DeMoss-Durdan Garden Chapel, 815 N.W. Buchanan Avenue, Corvallis, OR 97330.

MEMORIAL
MAX EUGENE MORGAN

Max Eugene Morgan of Corvallis died at Heart of the Valley Center on November 11, 1995. He was 81.

Morgan was born to Henry Charles and Lucy (Clark) Morgan in Bellingham, Washington. He was raised in Bellingham and graduated from Bellingham High School. He married Betty J. Noble on September 12, 1937.

In 1939, Morgan received his bachelor of science degree from Washington State University in dairy manufacturing. While attending Washington State University, he belonged to Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity.

He enlisted in the Army in 1942, spending time in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, and Governors Island, New York, receiving the American Campaign Medal, World War II Victory Medal, and a Good Conduct Ribbon. Upon discharge from the Army in 1946, he joined the Army Reserves, retiring in 1975.

From 1948 to 1970, he was Professor of Dairy Industry at the University of Connecticut. He became Professor Emeritus at Oregon State University in Food Science until his retirement in 1977.

He received the Borden Award for dairy research in 1967. Morgan was an active ADSA member and served on the selection committee for the Pfizer Award and Borden Award. He served from 1968 to 1970 on the Flavor Nomenclature and Reference Standards Committee of the Dairy Foods Division.

Survivors include his son, Tom Morgan, of Corvallis; three grandchildren; and two nephews. He was preceded in death by his wife, Betty, and a son, Fred, in 1994.

Donations in his memory may be made to Good Samaritan Hospital in care of DeMoss-Durdan Garden Chapel, 815 N.W. Buchanan Avenue, Corvallis, OR 97330.